

Refresher Courses in Mediation

Refresher Courses are required to update the Mediators for the latest development in the field of mediation to enable them to be relevant in the matters pending for settlements. Therefore, Refresher Courses must be organized on regular intervals.

In the year 2015 i.e. on 31.10.2015, one day Refresher Course in mediation was conducted successfully at Delhi Secretariat. There were in all 60 participants including Mediators posted at various Mediation Centres, Co-Mediators and Addl. Directors. Ms. Anuja Saxena, Mr. K.K. Makhija, Advocate Trainers, from Karkardooma Court and Ms. J. Kim Wright, J.D. Lawyer cum Author from America were the Resource Persons.

It was explained the participants about the Mediation in pre-litigation matter, components of Mediation, benefits of Mediation and qualities of Mediator. Various stages of mediation were also explained. It was also told as to how effective negotiation can help in resolution of disputes. Mediation is infact a process which acts as healer of conflict and does not lead to mere decision of the case but to actual justice.

Morning high tea, Lunch and Evening tea were also provided to the participants.

The Refresher Course was well received by all the participants. It was unanimously agreed that there is no age for learning and this Refresher Course in fact, gave their thinking a new perspective.
